

SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF THE MISSIONS

Religious of Notre Dame de Missions (RNDM)

Missionaries beyond boundaries

The name of our congregation describes our spirituality which is both Trinitarian and Marian. Euphrasie Barbier, our foundress received a particular gift to understand that Trinity is the source of all missionary activity.

Like Mary, we are called to be attentive to the transforming power of the Spirit and to go out filled with zeal to continue the mission of God's love.

Founded in 1861 in Lyon, France
by Euphrasie Barbier

We are international Missionary women with a heart for the world, working with passion for the marginalised people of God and listening to the cry of the poor Earth, through the works of ...

- Education
- Healthcare
- Pastoral care and Youth
- Social development: women, girl children, anti-trafficking and Physically/Mentally challenged persons.

Today the Congregation is present in 22 countries worldwide: There are 900 missionaries serving the marginalised people Sharing the love of the Divine Missions wherever they are present in the world.
